CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

OF THE

British Columbia Packing Company (Limited).

1. The name of the Company shall be "The British Columbia Packing Company," with limited liability.

2. The objects for which the Company is formed, are the catching, purchasing, canning, and packing, by the different modes of preservation, of salmon and other fish, meats, fruits, and other articles, and the sale of the same; purchasing, using, and holding fish boats, steamers, and other craft for the purpose of catching and conveying fish, and all nets, seines, or other lawful instruments for taking fish in British Columbia, and with full power to do all matters and things necessary or in any way incidental to the business of the Company; also, to deal in lumber of every nature and kind, and purchase and sell the same, and do all things necessary to carry on the business of manufacturers and vendors of lumber.

3. The capital stock of the Company shall be sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000), divided into one hundred and sixty (160) shares of one hundred dollars each.

4. The time of the existence of the Company shall be ten years from date.

5. The number of the Trustees shall be five, and their names are J. W. Case, Otto Peterson, John Enberg, F. C. Reed, M. Herrick.

6. The principal place of business shall be located at New Westminster City, British Columbia.

7. A stockholder shall not be individually liable for the debts or liabilities of the Corporation, but the liability of a stockholder shall be limited to his proportion, based upon the amount of his respective shares, to assessments legally levied and the charges thereon, if advertised as delinquent during the time that he is a stockholder, upon a share or shares of which he is the holder, as shewn by the stockholders' register book of the Corporation. Assessments and charges thereon, when taken collectively, shall not exceed in the aggregate the value in dollars printed or shewn on each share when issued.

We, the afore-mentioned Trustees of "The British Columbia Packing Company (Limited)," are desirous of being formed into a Company with limited liability, according to the provisions of the "Companies Act, 1878."

Dated at New Westminster, B.C., this first day of May, 1882.
